SERIOUS RACE RIOT

Several Persons Killed and Many Reported Wounded,

FEW PARTICULARS

The Trouble Was Caused by Negroes Entering Coach for Whites on an Excursion Train to Beaumont from Lake Charles.

Beaumont, Tex., May 12.—A race riot occurred on an excursion train returning to Beaumont Sunday night from Lake Charles in which several persons were killed and many wounded. The train reached this city at 12 o'clock Sunday night, and contained more than 700 people, both white and colored, who were fairly frightened to death. The trouble was between white and colored men, and as near as can be learned, began by the negroes crowding into a coach occupied by white people. The trouble was of such a riotous nature that it is impossible to get any of the facts.

The brakeman says the trouble really began in the morning going down, when the white boys and men gathered rocks in the train and began throwing at the negroes at the various stations. When the train started from Lake Charles at 7:30 Sunday night it was readily seen that trouble was on hand, and it culminated when the negroes, being forced out of their own car, began crowding into the white people's car, looking for seats. No one knows how the fight started, but some on fired, and from that time it was a battle of bullets. The majority of the negroes were in the small smoking compartment and the whites in the other portion of the car.

The brakeman is unable to give any idea of the number killed. The fight occurred while the train was in full speed and he says that a large number jumped off the train as it sped along while several who were shot were thrown off. One negro was killed and thrown off the train at West Lake and this seems to be the only fact as to results. He says, however, that he knows of four white people, white men who live in Orange were shot, but when taken off there all were alive.

The brakeman says he has no doubt but there are more negroes men and women, scattered all along the railroad between Lake Charles and Orange. Some of them were shot before they jumped or were thrown off and many others may be killed or maimed. The telegraph operator at Sulphur, the first station this side of West Lake, reports that some fifteen or twenty negro men and women stragglers arrived there. He reports that they are so frightened as to be unable to give a definite report of the trouble. This operator says one negro named Solomon Dotley was killed at West Lake and three negro women and five negro men wounded.

The Vinton operator says that there were three negro men killed and three whites wounded. The car in which the riot occurred is well marked with bullet holes and bears other evidence of the deadly conflict.

THE STRIKE IS ON.

President Mitchell Says 140,000 Men and Boys Are Idle in Pennsylvania.

Shamokin, Pa., May 12.—Forty-five collieries in the Ninth mining district are completely tied up by 20,655 employees, excluding bosses, firemen, pumpmen and engineers, enforcing a three days' suspension ordered by the Scranton convention. The coal companies refuse to say whether they will make a move for resumption on Thursday, in case Wednesday's convention declares in favor of a continuation of the strike.

President Mitchell, of the United Mine workers stated at Scranton that ties up in three anthracite districts were complete and that approximately 140,000 men and boys were idle. In every instance, Mitchell said, the order to suspend operations had been obeyed.

Backed by Henry Frick

Guthrie, O. T., May 12.—From information given out here it is ascertained that the Kansas Southern railway, with Henry Frick of Pittsburgh, Pa., is back of the Fort Smith and Western railroad, now building from Fort Smith, Ark., to Guthrie and that the final terminus will be Denver, Col. Already the survey is being pushed toward Denver from Guthrie and contractors have received information from Mr. Frick that he will be personally responsible for the construction of the road and to rush the work.

Potato Crop of Oklahoma.

Guthrie, O. T., May 12.—Few realize the vast amount of potatoes that will be shipped from Oklahoma this season. Last year there were 350 carloads shipped from Shawnee alone, and most conservative estimates of the number of cars that will be shipped this season range from 1500 to 2000. Freight officials were in that city Saturday and met representatives of the Potato Growers' association, with a view to perfecting arrangements to handle the crop. The association has received twelve carloads of sacks.

Fighting at Port au Prince.

Port au Prince, Hayti, May 12.—Severe fighting is progressing in the streets of Port au Prince. The situation is very serious.

ACTING PROMPTLY.

President Urges $500,000 Be Sent to the St. Pierre Sufferers.

Washington, May 12.—The president, after a conference with several members of the cabinet, ordered the war navy and treasury departments to co-operate in the adoption of steps for the relief of the Martinique sufferers. The state department already is acting through consuls in that section. The navy transport Dixie will be ready to sail from the Brooklyn navy yard for Martinique on Wednesday. The revenue cutter service also will render all possible aid and, having at least two cutters in southern waters, it is believed they can be ordered at once to the western Antilles.

The war department has already on hand at New York a large amount of food supplies, and these probably will be drawn upon.

The president has prepared a message for congress in which he urges the immediate appropriation of $500,000 for the relief of Martinique sufferers.

Later, by the president's direction orders were telegraphed to the Dixie to load stores which are to be furnished by the army, as rapidly as possible, and clear for Martinique at the earliest possible moment.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Day of Fasting and Prayer Observed by the Delegates.

Dallas, May 12.—In accordance with a resolution passed by the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on Saturday, today was observed as a day of humility—of fasting and prayer. The members of the church, as well as the delegates to the conference, obeyed the resolution so far as they were able to.

Divine guidance was invoked on the deliberations of the representatives of the church in their discussion of all questions which may come before the conference, especially upon the war claim.

The resolution, however, did not affect the general conference in any way so far as the regular proceedings were concerned. At 9 o'clock the conference met as usual and transacted business as came before it for consideration.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the fraternal messenger of the Methodist Episcopal church, north, will be formally received. The ceremonies will take place at the auditorium at the fair grounds, where the regular daily sessions of the general conference are being held.

These proceedings are of more than ordinary moment, as the northern branch of the church embraces by far the larger body of Methodists. Through their messengers, Rev. D. W. Huntington, D. D., of Lincoln, Neb., and Lieutenant Governor John L. Bates of Boston, Mass., they send greetings to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

In church circles great importance is attached to the messages which will be read by these messengers on behalf of the church, and the entire conference is expected to be on hand.

Sunday the various Protestant pulpits were filled by delegates to the conference.

Adjourn for Fasting and Prayer.

Dallas, May 12.—Bishop Galloway presided at today's session of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. After the body was called to order by Bishop Duncan the latter announced this as a day of fasting and prayer. A motion to adjourn immediately after roll call that the delegates might deliberate over the war claim matter was laid on the table. Dr. Smith of Virginia then made an earnest appeal to the conference for time in which to pray and deliberate over the war claim. The order of the call for resolutions was resumed and at the end of the call the conference voted to adjourn until eight o'clock to receive the address of fraternal messengers from the Northern Methodist church.

MERIWINKLE.

Beyond the emerald prairies
The sun is sinking low
And the gentle gulf breeze varies
With the twilight's purple glow;
Ah, merry, Meriwinkle,
I'll sigh with the "pine"
When the stars begin to twinkle
And the moon begins to shine.

The fragrant breath of flowers
Wafted to me from afar
Does lend a charm to the evening hours
Which taught can ever mar;
Ah, handsome Meriwinkle,
My love is as true
As the stars that daily twinkle
In the dome of heaven's blue.

But like the stars above,
A rift may roll between
To dim a pretty light—my love
In a sky that is most serene;
But now my Meriwinkle
I'll sweetly dream of you
For the heavens are all a twinkle
And the morn is rising too.

If you think my Meriwinkle
Like Juliet, I'm too easily won,
I'll frown and my brow shall wrinkle,
And reserved I'll be as a nun;
But I love you Meriwinkle
More than all the world beside,
And emblematic is the periwinkle
Of the flow of memory's tide.

Dream on of life's picture,
It's realm of joy and woe
For eternally will add the future
To make the picture glow;
Then meet me Meriwinkle
In that heavenly home of mine,
Where the stars will softly twinkle
And the moon will softly shine.

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. J. J. ADAMS.

For more than a score a bright face did beam
On high and low, and we did not dream
That heaven so soon that smile would win
And leave us weeping in a world of sin.

We decked her grave with earth's bright flowers
That fade so soon, but in Eden's bowers
Immortal chaplets deck her spirit brow,
And that voice which filled our hearts with delight,
Rings with angel choirs where there is no
night.

Oh, noble friend, wife, mother so true,
May others grow each day more like you,
Scattering sunshine on life's pathway,
Soothing helping, loving until our close of day

From Herculaneum to St. Pierre, though nineteen centuries as men count time, is but a day in geological eras. The old earth is not perceptibly older now with the horrors of St. Pierre's destruction
sickening the world than yesterday
when beneath volcanic fires Pompeii was destroyed.

BURNING THE DEAD.

Heat from the Lava Is Suffocating and Stench from the Corpses Awful.

Where the City Was Is a
Bed of a Hot Cinders.

Port de France, May 12.—Several
steamers, including the French government's vessel Rubis, have returned here from St. Pierre. Then had on board the government's delegate, a number of gendarmes, a detachment of regular infantry, and several priests.

The vessels also carried a quantity
of firewood, petroleum and quick lime,
for use in the cremation of the bodies
of victims of the terrible volcanic outbreak on Thursday last. Large quantities of disinfectants and stocks of clothing for refugees were also shipped to St. Pierre.

The refugees had, as a rule, assembled at Le Carbet and at Hilote, not far from St. Pierre, and it is reported that over 1000 of them have died since
the fearful stream of lava poured down
Mont Pelee.

The sea for miles around is covered with wreckage of vessels sunk off St.
Pierre at the time of the disaster, and ashore are only a few trees, all bent

MERIWINKLE.

Beyond the emerald prairies
The sun is sinking low
And the gentle gulf breeze varies
With the twilight's purple glow;
Ah, merry, Meriwinkle,
I'll sigh with the "pine"
When the stars begin to twinkle
And the moon begins to shine.
The fragrant breath of flowers
Wafted to me from afar
Does lend a charm to the evening hours
Which nought can ever mar;
Ah, handsome Meriwinkle,
My love is as true
As the stars that daily twinkle
In the dome of heaven's blue.
But like the stars above,
A rift may roll between
To dim a pretty light—my love
In a sky that is most serene;
But now my Meriwinkle
I'll sweetly dream of you
For the heavens are all a twinkle
And the moon is rising too.
If you think my Meriwinkle
Like Juliet, I'm too easily won,
I'll frown and my brow shall wrinkle,
And reserved I'll be as a nun;
But I love you Meriwinkle
More than all the world beside,
And emblematic is the periwinkle
Of the flow of memory's tide.
Dream on of life's picture,
It's realm of joy and woe
For eternity will add the future
To make the picture glow;
Then meet me Meriwinkle
In that heavenly home of mine,
Where the stars will softly twinkle
And the moon will softly shine.

For the Eagle.

For more than a score a bright face did beam
On high and low, and we did not dream
That heaven so soon that smile would win
And leave a weeping in a world of sin.
We decked her grave with earth's bright flowers
That fade so soon, but in Eden's bowers
Immortal chaplets deck her spirit brow,
And that voice which filled our hearts with de-
light,
Mingles with angel choirs where there is no
night.

Oh, noble friend, wife, mother so true,
May others grow each day more like you,
Scattering sunshine on life's pathway,
Soothing, helping, loving until our close of day.

From Herculaneum to St. Pierre, though nineteen centuries as men count time, is but a day in geological eras. The old earth is not perceptibly older now with the horrors of St. Pierre's destruction
sickening the world than yesterday
when beneath volcanic fires Pom-
peii was destroyed.

Card to the Public.

On account of Bryan not being large enough for other mechanics to have a union and get union prices for their work they do not appreciate having to pay union prices, and in view of the fact that transient business is insufficient in a town the size of Bryan. I believe it is best for me and for my customers to reduce my prices for barber work. For reduced prices see my ad, in this paper. Is greatly appreciate the patronage I have enjoyed since coming to Bryan, and hope for its continuance. Respectfully,
H. E. Simmons.

A Hearne special says: "The Houston and Texas Central railroad company is having quite a number of cars of granite hauled here and will use it in its ornamenting the grounds around the depot. Bermuda grass has been set out and a flower garden will be planted on the most attractive on the grounds and this depot will be one of most attractive on the company's line." The Eagle would like to hear of something like this being done at the Bryan depot when the opportunities are excellent for such improvement.

All That Is Left of St. Pierre Is a Smoking Ruin.

BURNING THE DEAD.

Heat from the Lava Is Suffocating and Stench from the Corpses Awful.

Where the City Was Is a
Bed of a Hot Cinders.

Port de France, May 12.—Several
steamers, including the French government's vessel Rubis, have returned
here from St. Pierre. Then had on board the government's delegate, a
number of gendarmes, a detachment of
regular infantry, and several priests.
The vessels also carried a quantity
of firewood, petroleum and quick lime,
for use in the cremation of the bodies
of victims of the terrible volcanic out-
break on Thursday last. Large quantities of disinfectants and stocks of
clothing for refugees were also shipped
to St. Pierre.

The refugees had, as a rule, assembled at Le Carbet and at Hilotte, not far from St. Pierre, and it is reported that over 1000 of them have died since
the fearful stream of lava poured down
Mont Pelee.

The sea for miles around is covered
with wreckage of vessels sunk off St.
Pierre at the time of the disaster, and
ashore are only a few trees, all bent seaward by the force of the volcanic shower, left standing.

When nearing St. Pierre the Rubis met a number of tugs towing lighters filled with refugees.

The heat from the smoking lava which covered the ruins at St. Pierre was suffocating, and the stench from corpses strewn in the streets was awful. Only a few walls are standing.
The reports that the hospital clock was found intact, with hands stopped at 7:50 o'clock, was confirmed, as was the statement that the officers of the cable company had entirely disappeared.

On all sides were found portions of corpses which were gathered up by one of the public squares.

Not a drop of water was procurable ashore. Darkness caused by clouds of volcanic dust shrouded the town, and continuous subterranean rumblings town were razed and were replaced by beds of hot cinders. The iron work of the gate of the government offices were alone standing. There was no trace of streets. Huge heaps of smoking ashes were seen on all sides.

TEACHERS ELECTED

For Ensuing Year for White and Colored Schools.

The board of trustees of the city schools, composed of Dr. J. W.
Howell, J. Allen Myers, H. C.
Robinson, W. T. James, G. M.
Brandon, Col. M. W. Sims and A.
M. Rhodes, have elected teachers
for the ensuing year, all but two being re-elections, and these two
not having applied. Prof. T. S.
Minter was elected superintendent
with the following corps of teachers:
White school—W. C. Davis, principal; J. M. Oneal, assistant principal; Miss Bessie West, Mrs. M.
N. Cavitt, Miss Ivy Carnes, Mrs.
Mattie Smith, Miss Cordie Fletcher,
Miss Ada Board, Miss Charlotte
Stoddard, Miss Annie Deering, Miss
Adelle Fulkerson, Miss Lula Hollis,
of Keachie, La., and Miss Mary Burtis of Runge, formerly of Madisonville.

Music Teachers—Misses McLelland and Berryman, and Miss Virginia West.

Art Teacher—Miss Ethel Hutson
Colored School—P. Landry, principal; J. T. Bradley, assistant principal; E. W. Knox, Lavenia Alberson, Ada Scott, Beatrice Calhoun.

Dr. J. W. Howell was re-elected president of the board of Trustees and J. Allen Myers re-elected secretary.

Paul Ruchti was elected janitor
for another year.

C. M. Spell was elected to take the scholastic census.

The city council is to be congratulated upon the prompt and unanimous manner in which the Carnegie
library proposition was accepted,
and those who have worked so faithfully to secure the library are also deserving of the thanks of the people of Bryan. It will be an enduring monument to the interest and efforts
of all concerned in the movement.
As an addition to the town, it will be invaluable, and as a benefit to the youth of the city it should appear in most advantageous light. Long life
to the venerable philanthropist, Mr.
Carnegie, and may his behest prove
a great blessing to Bryan.

Hon. J. F. Randolph died at his home in Madisonville, Saturday morning. He had been in ill health
some years and visited west Texas
in the hope of recuperating, but his improvement was not of long duration. Mr. Randolph belonged to one of the prominent families of this section of the state, and was a well-known lawyer. He formerly took an active interest in politics, and was a prominent member of the Twenty-fourth legislature. Mr. Randolph had many friends in Bryan who deeply regret to learn of his death.

business and will continue it at the same stand. Mr. Henry is well known to the people of Bryan and vicinity and we bespeak for him the same measure of success which has attended this business in the past twelve years. Mr. and Mrs. Moore expect to be absent several months
traveling.

Three beautiful building lots—two big oak trees—level ground—one

Justice W. G. Williams was here
from Wellborn yesterday, and said that crops were more forward and prospects brighter in that neighborhood than for many years at this season. This appears to be the condition throughout this section of the state, however, there is already some talk of the boll weevils, and some farmers are making arrangements to begin poisoning at once.

Good, well cured hams and breakfast bacon are better, cheaper and more wholesome than any other meats you can buy. The Gold Band
brand is the best. 137

Packing house products are the best, most healthful and the cheapest meats obtainable. In order to get the best, call for Gold Band Hams
and Breakfast Bacon. 137

Mrs. W. H. Oliver will give a tea at her residence Wednesday afternoon from 4:30 to 6:30, to Misses Frances Chance and Pauline Webb
for the benefit of the communion
table of the new Methodist church.
Class No. 3 has pledged $50 to pur-

Bryan has been infested with dogs time, so much so that they may be seen lying about the streets day and night. The council has very wisely decided to abate this dangerous numuzzled.

ored Schools.

The board of trustees of the city schools, composed of Dr. J. W.
Howell, J. Allen Myers, H. C.
Robinson, W. T. James, G. M.
Brandon, Col. M. W. Sims and A.
M. Rhodes, have elected teachers
for the ensuing year, all but two
being re-elections, and these two
not having applied. Prof. T. S.
Minter was elected superintendent
with the following corps of teachers:

cipal; J. M. Oneal, assistant principal; Miss Bessie West, Mrs. M.
N. Cavitt, Miss Ivy Carnes, Mrs.
Mattie Smith, Miss Cordie Fletcher,

Stoddard, Miss Annie Deering, Miss
Adelle Fulkerson, Miss Lula Hollis,

and J. Allen Myers re-elected secretary.

Paul Ruchti was elected janitor
for another year.

C. M. Spell was elected to take
the scholastic census.

The city council is to be congratulated upon the prompt and unanimous manner in which the Carnegie
library proposition was accepted,
and those who have worked so faith-
fully to secure the library are also
deserving of the thanks of the people
of Bryan. It will be an enduring
monument to the interest and efforts
of all concerned in the movement.
As an addition to the town, it will be invaluable, and as a benefit to the youth of the city it should appear in most advantageous light. Long life
to the venerable philanthropist, Mr.
Carnegie, and may his behest prove
a great blessing to Bryan.

Hon. J. F. Randolph died at his home in Madisonville, Saturday
morning. He had been in ill health
some years and visited west Texas
in the hope of recuperating, but his
improvement was not of long duration. Mr. Randolph belonged to one of the prominent families of this section of the state, and was a well-known lawyer. He formerly took an
prominent member of the Twenty-
fourth legislature. Mr. Randolph
had many friends in Bryan who
deeply regret to learn of his death.

Konecny Bros. always keep fifteen are the only dealers now using ice

Mr. H. H. Henry has purchased
Mr. C. F. Moore's feed and grain
business and will continue it at the same stand. Mr. Henry is well known to the people of Bryan and
vicinity and we bespeak for him the
same measure of success which has
attended this business in the past
twelve years. Mr. and Mrs. Moore
expect to be absent several months
traveling.

Three beautiful building lots—two
big oak trees—level ground—one block from Allen Academy. Worth $600. Will sell cash for $300. See Cliff A. Adams. 151

Justice W. G. Williams was here
from Wellborn yesterday, and said
that crops were more forward and
prospects brighter in that neighborhood than for many years at this sea-
son. This appears to be the condition throughout this section of the
talk of the boll weevils, and some
farmers are making arrangements to begin poisoning at once.

Good, well cured hams and breakfast bacon are better, cheaper and
more wholesome than any other
meats you can buy. The Gold Band
brand is the best. 137

Packing house products are the
best, most healthful and the cheapest meats obtainable. In order to get the best, call for Gold Band Hams
and Breakfast Bacon. 137

Mrs. W. H. Oliver will give a tea

noon from 4:30 to 6:30, to Misses
Frances Chance and Pauline Webb

WRECK OF ST. PIERRE

Few of the Inhabitants Left and None of the Town.

A PITIABLE SCENE

Shower of Fire and Lava Rushed Suddenly Down on the Town Cutting Off All Means of Escape.
Most of Rescued Hurt.

Fort de France, May 12.—Advices received here from the vicinity of St. Pierre, 10 miles away, contain further details of the terrible volcanic upheaval. The crater of Mont Pelee had been bearing its "smoke cap" since May 3, but there was nothing until last Monday to indicate that there was the slightest danger. On that day a stream of boiling lava burst through the top of the crater and plunged into the valley of the river Blanche, overwhelming the Guerin sugar works and killing 23 people.

A commission was appointed by the governor to investigate the outbreak and it returned a reassuring report on Wednesday evening; but about 8 o'clock on Thursday morning a shower of fire rushed down on St. Pierre and the coast from Le Carbet, which had a population of 6000, to Le Prechur, which had a population of 4000, burning up everything in its path. Throughout Thursday the heat in the vicinity of St. Pierre was so intense and the stream of flowing lava was so unrelenting that it was impossible to approach the town during the early part of the day. As evening approached the French cruiser Suchet, after a battle with the heat, suffocation and sulphur fumes, succeeded in making a dash toward the shore, nearing the land close enough to enable her to take off 36 survivors of the disaster, all of whom were horribly burned and mutilated. St. Pierre at that time was an absolute smoking waste, concealing 30,000 corpses, whose rapid decomposition necessitated, in some cases, instantly completing their cremation, which was only partially accomplished by the lava.

The inhabitants of Fort de France were panic stricken. The morning of the disaster, when the sky suddenly blackened until it was as dark as mid night, the sea shrank back 30 yards and hot rain began to fall.

The 450 survivors who were brought here from the vicinity of St. Pierre by the French cable repair ship Pouyeau Guertier came from the town of Le Prechur, where, surrounded on all sides by floating lava, they were nearly roasted to death and expected momentarily to be engulfed.

St. Pierre was destroyed in the twinkling of an eye, and that not 40 of the inhabitants of the city escaped. Some of the outlying parishes of the island of Martinique have been inundated. The whole northern portion of the island is burning; it has been denuded of vegetation and is a rocky wilderness.

It is believed from the information received here that the disaster surpasses all that imagination can conceive. The whole northern portion of the island is laid waste. Three large communities, exclusive of St. Pierre have been destroyed.

All the hills surrounding Le Carbet and Le Prechur are covered with refugees to the number of about 5000 who are being taken away gradually. In the meanwhile provisions are being conveyed to them.

Of the 30 persons who were originally rescued by the French cruiser Suchet, the majority were fearfully burned, and nine died while on their way to the hospital.

The corpses which are heaped in the ruins of St. Pierre are not only completely naked, but are frightfully mutilated.

Trouble in Costa Rica.

Panama, May 12.—News has reached here from Costa Rica that the military element in the neighborhood of San Jose, the capital is in insurrection refusing to recognize the authority of Asunin Esquivil, who was inaugurated president May 8. The insurrectionists are proclaiming Demetrio Yglesias, the former Costa Rican minister of war, as president of the country. Senor Yglesias has declined to take part in the revolutionary movement. Important changes have been made among the government officials of Costa Rica.

Riot at a Circus.

Brezers, France, May 12.—Barnum and Bailey's circus was the cause of a serious riot here Sunday afternoon. The crowd seeking admission to the performance was greater than the tent

could accommodate and a number who were unable to enter began stoning the circus employees, five of whom were injured. One had his skull fractured and probably will die. The crowd numbered about 7000. They cut the tent ropes and several thousand persons forced their way into the arena. The troops were called out and finally drove the rioters away.

Killing in Kentucky.

Grayson, Ky., May 12.—Robert Hicks was killed. Tom Tackett fatally wounded. W. M. Smith shot in the forehead and Henry Tackett cut three times with a knife so that he will die and others were hurt in a row at Olive Hill Saturday night. The guilty parties are under arrest and more trouble is expected.

Kentucky Family Lost.

Middleboro, Ky., May 12.—W. C. Ince and family, lost on the Roraima, the Quebec liner destroyed in the disaster at St. Pierre, were former residents of Middleboro.

CUBAN FLAG HOISTED.

It Was Unfurled on Morro Castle at the Approach of President Palma.

Havana, May 12.—At twenty-three minutes of eight Sunday morning a large Cuban flag was hoisted over Morro castle here. This was the signal that the steamer Julia, with President Elect Palma and his party on board, had been sighted, and cheers went up from the thousands who, on the shore opposite Morro castle, had patiently awaited the Julia's arrival since daybreak. The crowd cheered for the new president and for the flag which was hoisted over the famous fortress for the first time.

It was a moment of exultation for the Cubans, and the fact that the stars and stripes floated from its customary flagstaff beside the Cuban flag over the castle did not lessen their enthusiasm.

The Cuban flag flying over Morro was the same one which was first raised over the senate chamber. When the smoke of the Julia was seen in the direction of Matanzas the flag was hauled up. As it rose the bands stationed along the waterfront played the Cuban national hymn, steamers saluted and church bells were rung. Two hours later, after the last of the great fleet of vessels had gone out to escort the Julia to the harbor had returned past Morro castle, the flag was lowered and raised over the senate chamber.

There was continuous saluting as the Julia sailed between the rows of decorated tugs and barges and there were cheers from the crowded wharves. The several warships in the harbor were also decorated. The stars and stripes floated over the wreck of the Maine, and under this flag the Cuban commission in charge of the festivities had caused a black and white pennant to be placed.

The steam tug Dauntless, the old filibuster, was given the right of the line in the marine procession.

When he arrived at the wharf the president elect was welcomed by Vice President Esteve in a brief speech. A pretty feature of the reception here was Senor Estrada Palma's welcome by 23 young Cuban women dressed in costumes representing the American republics.

From the wharf the president elect was escorted to the palace by members of the rural guard. Governor General Wood, his staff and the secretaries received Senor Estrada Palma at the palace. From here the president elect proceeded to the municipal council building, where speeches were made by the mayor of Havana and Senor Zayas. The latter welcomed Senor Estrada Palma in behalf of the people of all classes and all political beliefs.

Replying, Senor Estrada Palma said that his reception was a gratifying experience, and, judging from what he had seen since his arrival in Cuba, the people were unanimous in support of the incoming government. This, he said, boded well for the republic. General Wood, accompanied Senor Estrada Palma to the residence of General Maximo Gomez, where the president elect will reside until his inauguration, May 20. The municipal council gave a breakfast in honor of Senor Estrada Palma and at a dinner given by General Wood, Senor Estrada Palma, General Gomez, the archbishop of Havana, the secretaries and a number of prominent Cubans were present.

Maya's Resolution Goes Over.

Washington, May 12.—In the senate the resolution offered by Senator Bailey of Texas Saturday, relative to special embassies to the coronation, was called up, but after some discussion went over.

The bill to fix the compensation of criers and balliffs in the United States courts at $3 per day instead of $2 a day, was passed.

Consideration of the Philippines government bill was then begun, Mr. Foraker of Ohio addressing the senate in support of the measure.

A PITIABLE SCENE

Shower of Fire and Lava Rushed Suddenly Down on the Town Cutting Off All Means of Escape.
Most of Rescued Hurt.

Fort de France, May 12.—Advice received here from the vicinity of St. Pierre, 10 miles away, contain further details of the terrible volcanic upheaval. The crater of Mont Pelee had been bearing its "smoke cap" since May 3, but there was nothing until last Monday to indicate that there was the slightest danger. On that day a stream of boiling lava burst through the top of the crater and plunged into the valley of the river Blanche, overwhelming the Guerin sugar works and killing 23 people.

A commission was appointed by the governor to investigate the outbreak and it returned a reassuring report on Wednesday evening; but about 8 o'clock on Thursday morning a shower of fire rushed down on St. Pierre and the coast from Le Carbet, which had a population of 6000, to Le Precheur, which had a population of 4000, burning up everything in its path. Throughout Thursday the heat in the vicinity of St. Pierre was so intense and the stream of flowing lava was so unrelenting that it was impossible to approach the town during the early part of the day. As evening approached the French cruiser Suchet, after a battle with the heat, suffocation and sulphur fumes, succeeded in making a dash toward the shore, nearing the land close enough to enable her to take off 35 survivors of the disaster, all of whom were horribly burned and mutilated. St. Pierre at that time was an absolute smoking waste, concealing 30,000 corpses, whose rapid decomposition necessitated, in some cases, instantly completing their cremation, which was only partially accomplished by the lava.

The inhabitants of Fort de France were panic stricken. The morning of the disaster, when the sky suddenly blackened until it was as dark as mid night, the sea shrank back 30 yards and hot rain began to fall.

The 450 survivors who were brought here from the vicinity of St. Pierre by the French cable repair ship Poueyat Guertier came from the town of Le Precheur, where, surrounded on all sides by floating lava, they were nearly roasted to death and expected momentarily to be engulfed.

St. Pierre was destroyed in the twinkling of an eye, and that not 40 of the inhabitants of the city escaped. Some of the outlying parishes of the island of Martinique have been inundated. The whole northern portion of the island is burning; it has been denuded of vegetation and is a rocky wilderness.

It is believed from the information received here that the disaster surpasses all that imagination can conceive. The whole northern portion of the island is laid waste. Three large communities, exclusive of St. Pierre have been destroyed.

All the hills surrounding Le Carbet and Le Precheur are covered with refugees to the number of about 5000 who are being taken away gradually. In the meanwhile provisions are being conveyed to them.

Of the 30 persons who were originally rescued by the French cruiser Suchet, the majority were fearfully burned, and nine died while on their way to the hospital.

The corpses which are heaped in the ruins of St. Pierre are not only completely naked, but are frightfully mutilated.

Trouble in Costa Rica.

Panama, May 12.—News has reached here from Costa Rica that the military element in the neighborhood of San Jose, the capital is in insurrection refusing to recognize the authority of Asunin Esquivil, who was inaugurated president May 8. The insurgents are proclaiming Demetrio Yglesias, the former Costa Rican minister of war, as president of the country. Senor Yglesias has declined to take part in the revolutionary movement. Important changes have been made among the government officials of Costa Rica.

Riot at a Circus.

Brezers, France, May 12.—Barnum and Bailey's circus was the cause of a serious riot here Sunday afternoon. The crowd seeking admission to the performance was greater than the tent

could accommodate and a number who were unable to enter began stoning the circus employees, five of whom were injured. One had his skull fractured and probably will die. The crowd numbered about 7000. They cut the tent ropes and several thousand persons forced their way into the arena. The troops were called out and finally drove the rioters away.

Killing in Kentucky.

Grayson, Ky., May 12.—Robert Hicks was killed. Tom Tackett fatally wounded. W. M. Smith shot in the forehead and Henry Tackett cut three times with a knife so that he will die and others were hurt in a row at Olive Hill Saturday night. The guilty parties are under arrest and more trouble is expected.

Kentucky Family Lost.

Middleboro, Ky., May 12.—W. C. Ince and family, lost on the Roraima, the Quebec liner destroyed in the disaster at St. Pierre, were former residents of Middleboro.

CUBAN FLAG HOISTED.

It was unfurled on Morro Castle at the Approach of President Palma.

Havana, May 12.—At twenty-three minutes of eight Sunday morning a large Cuban flag was hoisted over Morro castle here. This was the signal that the steamer Julia, with President Elect Palma and his party on board, had been sighted, and cheers went up from the thousands who, on the shore opposite Morro castle, had patiently awaited the Julia's arrival since daybreak. The crowd cheered for the new president and for the flag which was hoisted over the famous fortress for the first time.

It was a moment of exultation for the Cubans, and the fact that the stars and stripes floated from its customary flagstaff beside the Cuban flag over the castle did not lessen their enthusiasm.

The Cuban flag flying over Morro was the same one which was first raised over the senate chamber. When the smoke of the Julia was seen in the direction of Matanzas the flag was hauled up. As it rose the bands stationed along the waterfront played the Cuban national hymn, steamers saluted and church bells were rung. Two hours later, after the last of the great fleet of vessels had gone out to escort the Julia to the harbor had returned past Morro castle, the flag was lowered and raised over the senate chamber.

There was continuous saluting as the Julia sailed between the rows of decorated tugs and barges and there were cheers from the crowded wharves. The several warships in the harbor were also decorated. The stars and stripes floated over the wreck of the Maine, and under this flag the Cuban commission in charge of the festivities had caused a black and white pennant to be placed.

The steam tug Dauntless, the old filibuster, was given the right of the line in the marine procession.

When he arrived at the wharf the president elect was welcomed by Vice President Esteve in a brief speech. A pretty feature of the reception here was Senor Estrada Palma's welcome by 23 young Cuban women dressed in costumes representing the American republics.

From the wharf the president elect was escorted to the palace by members of the rural guard. Governor General Wood, his staff and the secretaries received Senor Estrada Palma at the palace. From here the president elect proceeded to the municipal council building, where speeches were made by the mayor of Havana and Senor Zayas. The latter welcomed Senor Estrada Palma in behalf of the people of all classes and all political beliefs.

Replying, Senor Estrada Palma said that his reception was a gratifying experience, and, judging from what he had seen since his arrival in Cuba, the people were unanimous in support of the incoming government. This, he said, boded well for the republic. General Wood, accompanied Senor Estrada Palma to the residence of General Maximo Gomez, where the president elect will reside until his inauguration, May 20. The municipal council gave a breakfast in honor of Senor Estrada Palma and at a dinner given by General Wood, Senor Estrada Palma, General Gomez, the archbishop of Havana, the secretaries and a number of prominent Cubans were present.

Mayor's Resolution Goes Over.

Washington, May 12.—In the senate the resolution offered by Senator Bailey of Texas Saturday, relative to special embassies to the coronation, was called up, but after some discussion went over.

The bill to fix the compensation of clerks and bailiffs in the United States courts at $3 per day instead of $2 a day, was passed.

Consideration of the Philippines government bill was then begun, Mr. Foraker of Ohio addressing the senate in support of the measure.
